

Genealogy Tune-Up

Erin Apostolos, Meredith Public Library

Free Training available online

- Ancestry.com Learning Center- <http://www.ancestry.com/cs/HelpAndAdviceUS> contains many video tutorials, tips on getting started, learn what's new at Ancestry and consult numerous "how-to" articles (don't miss Family History 101...lots of great tips for all levels.)
- Ancestry.com Youtube Channel- <http://www.youtube.com/user/AncestryCom> Ancestry's desktop education series, Webinars, Ancestry DNA, much more.
- Youtube.com-www.youtube.com Try searching on "genealogy" or narrow by topic such as "Irish genealogy".
- Genealogy Gems Youtube and Podcast- <http://www.youtube.com/user/GenealogyGems> and <http://genealogygemspodcast.com/> Lisa Louise Cooke has produced numerous "how-to" videos as well as hundreds of podcasts on genealogy and family history subjects.
- Genealogy Videos- <https://sites.google.com/site/genealogyvideos/> Numerous videos broken down by topics such as Organizing Genealogy Research, Family Traditions and Records or Using a Library for Genealogy.
- The Genealogy Guys- <http://www.genealogyguys.com/> The Guys will keep you up-to-date with the latest genealogy developments. They also answer genealogy questions from listeners. The page links you to the podcast downloads as well as notes from each show.
- Rootstech- <http://rootstech.org/videos> Videos from the last Rootstech conference featuring information on "the cloud", publishing your genealogy online, using Google, and other technology topics as they relate to genealogy.
- BBC Radio Tracing Your Roots- <http://www.bbc.co.uk/podcasts/series/tyr> Debtors prisons, institutions, name changes, and many other topics.
- NEHGS Online Seminars- <http://www.americanancestors.org/online-seminars/> Getting started in genealogy, resources available at NEHGS, Irish Research, Records and Resources, Strategies and Methods.
- Family Search- <https://www.familysearch.org/learn> Features hundreds of slideshows and/or videos on many topics such as military, research in various countries, citizenship, vital records and much more. Also features discussion forums and a wiki.
- BYU Independent Study Courses Online- <http://is.byu.edu/site/courses/free.cfm> Has three sections related to genealogy including introduction, record types and regional and ethnic.